Sermon

Lord's Prayer

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has chosen for me.
I took His hand when I heard him call;
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I've now found peace at the end of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
Oh yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
Look for the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seems all to brief;
Don't lengthen your pain with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and peace to thee,
God wanted me now, He set me free

Chris was born in Marshall, Texas, on June 10, 1969, and passed away on November 4, 2011, in Dallas, at the age of 42.

He grew up in Dallas and then later in Carrollton, where he attended Blanton Elementary, North Carrollton Junior High and Newman Smith High School.

A natural born athlete, Chris enjoyed playing baseball and basketball, but he really excelled at football, and loved playing for Coach Litty and Coach Kay.

Chris is remembered by friends and loved ones as a kind-hearted man who loved life fiercely, worked hard, and was always jovial with a big smile on his face.

Chris obtained his mechanical engineering license from ITT Technical Institute and spent the majority of his career building and operating hotels and resorts.

Some of the properties he built include Winstar World Casino Hotel in Thackerville, OK, the Buffalo Thunder Resort in Santa Fe, NM, and the Westin Stonebriar in Frisco.

Chris recently joined the medical field serving as Director of Operations at Texas Health Presbyterian Hospital in Kaufman, TX.

He was a member of Hope Fellowship Church in Frisco, where he recently rededicated his life to Christ.

Chris is survived by his loving girlfriend, princess and best friend, Kim Wise Rogers of Dallas, his mother, Mary Ann Watkins of Dallas, his aunt Glenda Woods of Plano, TX, as well as many close friends.

He was preceded in death by his father, Billy Glenn Watkins of Corpus Christi, and his grandparents, William B. & Lucile Thornton of Sherman, TX, and O.N. & Jan Watkins of Hughes Springs, TX.

My sweet baby Chris,

I will miss your good morning kiss; I will miss the love notes you left on my windshield each day; I will miss your sweet texts; I will miss your loving phone calls; I will miss your hugs; I will miss skipping across the parking lot hand in hand; I will miss going to church with you; I will miss how your face lit up when I entered the room; I will miss going to Taco Diner with you; I will miss watching Texas Rangers games with you; I will miss walking at Arbor Hills with you; I will miss reading the Bible with you each night; I will miss your good night kiss.

You had such a positive influence on me. You brightened my life and taught me so much. I feel so blessed that you loved me and showed me a level of happiness I never knew existed. We are fortunate to have experienced the kind of love that most people just dream about. Thank you for loving me and showing me what true love is all about.

I love you ... always, forever and eternity [AFE] ... 1037 ...

Your Princess, Kim
