

Carrollton Will Observe Home-Coming

Special to The News.

CARROLLTON, Texas, Oct. 23.—A parade of floats led by the high school band, a bicycle brigade and a company of horsemen will fire off the eighth annual home-coming for ex-students of the Carrollton schools and former residents of Carrollton shortly after noon Friday, Mrs. H. Ray Ogle, alumni president, said Thursday.

MRS. OGLE. A Kidd Revue, including a baby parade, dances, readings and musical numbers by children of graduates of the local schools will be held in the high school auditorium during the day. Tommie Joe Vandergriff of Arlington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hooker Vandergriff, ex-students, will be master of ceremonies.

Moving pictures of former home-comings and of Carrollton football games, collected by E. P. Berryhill, high school principal, also will be shown.

A supper dance, with a patriotic motif in place cards and favors arranged by Miss Ollivene Patterson and Mrs. A. W. Clem III, will be held in the gymnasium after the Carrollton-Pleasant Grove football game.

Miss Beck Yeargain, chairman of the hobby show to be held in connection with home-coming, said thirty items have already been entered.

Walter Blanton is chairman of the parade committee. Others assisting with celebration arrangements are Miss Christine Mayes, Mrs. R. B. Pierce, Mrs. Hugh Torrence, Mrs. Marion Good, Miss Erma Sinclair and Mrs. C. A. Good.