

NO TRAIL OF THE ROBBER

Who Held Up and Robbed a Storekeeper at Farmers Branch.

As stated in yesterday's News Sheriff Cabell started last Monday night with bloodhounds for Farmers Branch on receipt of a telegram informing him that Capt. William Good had been held up in his store by a highwayman. Sheriff Cabell returned yesterday to the city, he having failed to track the highwayman. The facts of the robbery are detailed in the following special to The News:

Farmers Branch, Dallas Co., Tex., Feb. 20.—The town was stirred up when it was learned that Capt. William Good had been robbed by a highwayman. Capt. Good gives the following account of the affair: Last night at 8 o'clock he was preparing to close up the Lewis drug store when a pistol was thrust into his face with the order to open the cash drawer. When this was done the robber took the cash, backed out of house and made his escape. Sheriff Cabell was telegraphed for. He brought his dogs, but they failed to trail the man. At the time of the occurrence there were fifteen or twenty men across the street. The robber told Capt. Good if he made an alarm he would kill him. Capt. Good says at first he thought it was a joke played on him by some of the boys.
